

CENTER FOR COMMUNITY HEALTH AND DEVELOPMENT

Add: 127 Lo Duc – Hanoi – Vietnam
Tel: 84 – 4 – 9721452

E-mail: maihoa@cohed.org.vn
Fax: 84 – 4 - 9721459

Center for Community Health and Development (COHED) is a Vietnamese organization established in December 2002, which works for charitable and non-profit purposes and directly belongs to the Vietnam Union of Science and Technology Associations.

ACTIVITIES AND ACHIEVEMENTS

Training activities

Capacity building for health professionals and social workers of Hanoi, Hai Phong, Thai Nguyen, Lang Son, Thai Binh, Ho Chi Minh city, Can Tho, Quang Ninh in the areas of:

-  HIV/AIDS
-  Active training methodology (TOT)
-  Peer education and Community outreach
-  Participatory research methodology
-  Counseling knowledge and skills
-  Health communication and edutainment activities
-  Livelihood improvement

Research

- Positive Perspective: a qualitative research on the greater involvement of PLWHA in HIV/AIDS prevention and care in Hanoi, Hai Phong, Khanh Hoa, Ho Chi Minh city and Can Tho
- Rapid assessment of the Drug Demand Reduction Network of Ky Son, Nghe An

Sponsorship

Sponsor for poor and disadvantaged people including PLWHA and their families

Community- based Public Health programs

- HIV/AIDS Peer education Intervention in the 05/06 rehabilitation centers in Hanoi, Thai Nguyen and Khanh Hoa province.
- Peer education and community outreach for HIV/AIDS prevention, care and support, based in a 05/06 Rehabilitation Center in Binh Dinh.
- Model Community fighting against HIV/AIDS in Thai Binh province
- Community-edited film project: Bringing our voices to you to fight against HIV/AIDS related stigma and discrimination
- Multisectoral programs link intervention efforts for ethnic community in response to HIV/AIDS in Lang Son province
- Empowering HIV Positive Women for Positive Living in Quang Ninh, Hai Phong, Khanh Hoa and Ho Chi Minh city
- “Behind the Stage” - A peer education journey through community theater troops of People Living with HIV/AIDS